

Will you join us as we work to improve the lives of young people with attendance problems?

Your work is the keystone to progress in school attendance, and we'd like to share it with professionals throughout the world.

We invite you to submit a proposal for your contribution to INSA's 2022 Conference, based on research, practice, or policy.

Proposals are welcome until May 25, which is just around the corner.

A few more reasons to contribute to this interdisciplinary event ...

- You'll get to take a break from routine, with a chance to recharge your batteries.
- Introduce colleagues and students to the field of school attendance; foster their interest in research, practice, and policy.
- This is a unique opportunity to share your work and benefit from the input of others from around the world.
- You'll be part of the exciting process of making waves to advance school attendance.

We welcome all kinds of contributions; see the brochure & submit a proposal through the website.
